

Want to try a free Taster Day of bellringing?

Do you live or work in London and are you interested in starting a new activity?

Saturday 30 June, 2018 between 3:00pm to 5:00pm

The 100-year anniversary of of Armistice Day is coming soon
We need ringers to help us celebrate this major event

Visit St James Garlickhythe and try your hand at bellringing on the famous Jubilee Bells installed in honour of Queen Elizabeth II's Diamond Jubilee in 2012

What is bellringing all about?

- ❖ British change bellringing is unique in the world
- ❖ The tradition hails back to the 16th century and is practised in much the same way today
- ❖ 1400 bellringers died in WW1. Join the Ringing Remembers campaign by becoming a bellringer this year and ringing on 11 November to honour them and mark the WW1 centenary
- ❖ Bellringing is for all ages, genders, all parts of society, people of any or no religion
- ❖ Kids as young as 12 make exceptionally good bellringers but all ages can learn
- ❖ Bellringers are known for being friendly and welcoming and once you have learned the skill of bellringing you will be able to take part in any bellringing practice up and down the country

London Summer School

The event on 30 June 2018 is a Taster Day to give an introduction to bellringing. If you are interested in learning how to ring, we are, in support of the Ringing Remembers campaign running a week-long course in London from 30 July – 3 August. Please email London.bellringing.school@gmail.com for further information about the London Bellringing School.

Directions: St James Garlickhythe is on Garlick Hill in the City (London EC4V 2AF) a 2-minute walk from Mansion House tube station and a 4-minute walk from Cannon Street Station.
